

SING14 - DIRECTIONS TO BAYREUTH

Journey by Plane

The nearest airport is Nuremberg. Other conveniently located airports include Munich, Frankfurt/Main, Berlin, Leipzig, or Stuttgart.

Directions by Airplane and Train from Nuremberg Airport

You will find the metro station ("U-Bahn") when leaving the airport at its main exit. Use the train line "U2" with direction "Nürnberg Röthenbach" to get to the main station in Nuremberg "Nürnberg Hauptbahnhof". This will take 13 minutes.

You can buy your ticket either at the information desk at the airport or at a ticket machine. Since Nuremberg and Bayreuth belong to one linked transport system, you only need to buy one ticket for the whole trip from Nuremberg airport to Bayreuth. It also covers the bus in Bayreuth. However, it is not a day-ticket. For a single adult please choose category "10+T" (whole VGN area), which at the moment is 11,90€.

PLEASE NOTE: Sometimes, the train to Bayreuth is divided in the town of Pegnitz. One part goes to Bayreuth and the other one to Hof. Make sure to be on the correct part of the train (on the car and above the doors inside, you should see the direction "Bayreuth").

Journey by Long-Distance Coach

Bayreuth is connected to the long-distance coach network. Information and tickets e.g. at www.busticket.de / www.fernbusse.de / www.busliniensuche.de

Journey by Car

Bayreuth is located directly at the motorway A9 Nürnberg - Berlin. Take the exit "Bayreuth Süd".

Follow the signs "Bayreuth" - "Bayreuth Zentrum" - "Universität". Turn left into the premises of the university and then immediately to the right.
